

Crisis Bread Basket point out that due to changes in the lives of clients since the pandemic, many clients have had to move to places that do not offer easy access for prepping meals or even to refrigerate food. Therefore, as you are contemplating what is best to donate, please keep this new development in mind.

THE MOST NEEDED ITEMS ARE

Meats: cans of tuna, chicken, and single servings of ham

Other proteins: cans of beans

Soups: chunky with pull tops

Instant food: single serving oatmeal

Milk: instant non-fat milk, evaporated milk

Cereals: sugar free

Fruit: cans of fruit that are sugar free

Vegetables: cans of vegetables

Personal Hygiene items

You are invited to drop off the non perishable pantry items in the basket bins set out on the porch outside of McArthur Hall beginning this Sunday, January 17, 2021.

You may drop off the donations through Souper Bowl Sunday, February 7. St. Stephen's Souper Bowl Sunday volunteers will be taking the donations to the Crisis Bread Basket in batches on Tuesdays and Thursdays throughout the donation drive.

If you prefer making a monetary donation, please make check out to "St. Stephen's Episcopal Church" and write "Crisis Bread Basket" in the memo line. Checks may be mailed to: St. Stephen's Church, 6000-A FM 3237, Wimberley TX 78676. If you prefer making a donation by credit card, visit the church website: <https://www.ststeve.org/online-giving> and select "one time gift" in the pull down list; be sure to type "Crisis Bread Basket" in the "note" field.

All donations will benefit those in need in our Wimberley Valley community. Thank you for being a part of this outreach effort.

For more information, contact Souper Bowl coordinator, Melissa Odell, wesitpetsstay@comcast.net.

THURSDAY & MONDAY BIBLE BABES INFORMATION

If you are seeking a women's bible class this winter/spring, we have two offerings.

THURSDAY BIBLE BABES is led by Nancy Cooke-Jenkins, nancycookejenkins@gmail.com, and meets at 4 p.m. CT either using Zoom or on Nancy's patio. They are studying Spiritual Direction by Henri Nouwen.

MONDAY BIBLE BABES is led by Cindy Taylor, taylorcindy34@gmail.com and Becky Denton, dentonrebecca1@gmail.com. The Monday Bible Babes meet at 12 noon in the St. Stephen's courtyard weather permitting or you may choose to meet virtually any Monday class day using Zoom. They are studying Psalms.

Both choices provide a community in which women can study the scriptures, share their lives, support one another, and celebrate their faith. Use the links below to participate in either class. (If you are attending the Thursday Bible Babes class and are new, check with leader Nancy Cooke-Jenkins for location confirmation.)
