

St. Stephen's Episcopal Youth, Wimberley, TX

January, 2023

Hello to all our wonderful young people, parents, guardians, and supporters.

Change is not always easy, but we have an opportunity when change happens to create something new, and wonderful to the Glory of God. So, as we start the new year I hope this group will help you make changes, cope with changes and most of all bring you closer to God.

To the children: You are our most valuable and priceless gift. We as adults can learn so much from you, and I feel my ministry is to provide that safe place where you can learn and grow to be the adults God ordained you to be.

To the parents and Guardians: You are committed to your children and the sacred job you were given by God when you had children. I can only be humbled by this love and commitment. Know that you and your suggestions, presence and advice is always welcome in fact encouraged.
